The Initial Stage:

A meeting was arranged with Richard from 1st Call where the various options available to us were explained, and recommendations were made and an indicative price was quoted that we were happy with.

This was followed by an engineering survey where details of the installation were confirmed and the price quoted by Richard was confirmed.

The Installation Process:

The installation of our new Hikvision CCTV system was carried out by two of the 1st Call installations team, they were very professional and nothing was too much trouble for them.

The installation was all completed in one day, even though there were 4 new dedicated CAT5 points to be installed around our rather large premises for the cameras to connect to.

The Result:

Since 1st Call installed the new Hikvision CCTV solution, we are very pleased to say that we feel much more at ease. Knowing that all of our building perimeter is fully covered by the fantastic high definition Hikvision solution from 1st Call that we can view remotely via the smartphone app.

The installation of the CCTV been a very smooth process indeed, we are very happy with final result.

Recommendation:

From the initial meeting with the salesman and dealing with the engineers during installation I knew I had made a good choice, everyone at 1st Call is a pleasure to deal with.

The whole process was very smooth and the end result is exactly what we wanted.

We would be very happy to recommend the products & services that 1st Call offer without hesitation.
